GENDER AUDIT REPORT

GOVERNMENT ARTS COLLEGE, BHESAN

Gender Audit Report – 2018-23

Prepared by IQAC –Internal Quality Assurance Cell

Women Empowerment Committee (WEC)

Introduction:

The present Gender Audit is an attempt to study gender related information of the institute. It also aims to study whether the college follows all the University rules, policies in this regard as it forms a constituent part of the UGC norms. This Gender Audit tries to check the impact of its current & proposed policies on gender equality. The college concentrates on the overall personality development of all students. Observing gender equity, the girls are provided with various facilities and special attention. The Audit is a tool for analyzing and evaluating policies and programs of the college and assesses how the institution integrates the perspective in all the activities of the institution. The main aims of this audit are to ensure that the gender policies are followed and properly implemented in the college.

The college has set up Women Empowerment Committee from the very inception onwards, to ensure gender equity among the students in the campus and to make them aware of the relevance of gender equity in the society. Women Empowerment Committee always motivates the students to perform their social responsibilities and to empower them. Women Empowerment Committee has conducted different programs to boost the strength and capabilities of women students. Not just girls, but also boys too are included and educated. Women Empowerment Committee in the campus is providing a platform for listening to complaints, quick redressal of grievances and sensitizing female students on gender issues. All grievances shall be treated with absolute confidentiality through the setting up of a sexual harassment redressal committee.

Women Empowerment Committee & IQAC conducted a Gender Audit of the college for the year 2018-23, as it is an essential component for the assessment and accreditation of Higher Educational Institutions suggested by UGC. The team conducted the survey among the students of the college for the academic year 2018-23 and they scrutinized and reviewed the operating environment of college too.

Education is the tool to bring out the best in an individual and to bring in a positive change in the society. Higher education, namely college education in remote areas of Gujarat carry out this responsibility in multiple manner and contribute to the shaping of the youth and the future of the society and the nation.

Government Arts College, Bhesan has the privilege of having an advanced infrastructure that is digitally equipped, healthy, harmonious ambience and rich values which play pivotal role in shaping the future of students. The college offers specialization in various subjects of Arts so that the students of rural areas in and around the village can avail higher education.

The College welcomed youth from all sections of society without differentiation on grounds of religion, caste, and gender. The College was founded as a coeducational government institution at its very inception. It promotes an all-round development of its students by inclusion of humanistic values and respect for each other's culture as a way of life; by promoting the importance of knowledge, and making students visionaries to excel in any profession; and by providing students the widest opportunities to develop their potential to the fullest.

Facilities for Female Students:

- Separate Ladies room for female students.
- Separate space for female students in library.
- Large number of books about health, laws and wellbeing of females.
- Women cell for the solving the issues of female students.
- Sexual Harassment Prevention Cell coordinated by female faculty of the college.
- Time to time guidance for women hygiene.
- Regular mentoring for psychological issues by female faculty of psychology subject.

Objectives of Gender Audit:

- To find out the areas where gender balance exists and the factors behind the gender balance.
- To establish good gender balance in decision-making processes in all areas of the college activities.
- To suggest measures for bridging the gender gap.
- To Foster gender equality in all aspects of college community.
- To see the work and capacity for prevention of sexual harassment at the college.

2. Book Purchase: 'Woman's Dignity: A Right' (80 Copies)

Purchasing 80 copies of the book 'Women Dignity: A Right' for our college students presents a valuable opportunity for educational enrichment and personal growth. By engaging with the book's content, students will deepen their understanding of the significance of women's dignity as a fundamental human right. They will explore historical perspectives, contemporary challenges, and the importance of gender equality in society. This initiative not only fosters critical thinking and empathy but also empowers students to become advocates for social justice within our college community and beyond. Through discussions, workshops, and activities inspired by the book, students can actively contribute to creating a campus environment that values respect, inclusivity, and equal opportunities for all genders. Ultimately, the investment in these books will nurture a generation of informed and proactive individuals committed to upholding women's dignity as a universal right. We have attached a book order below.

5. Lecture on Gender Sensitization Campaigning

Date: 06/02/2021

Introduction: On February 6th, 2021, Government Arts College, Bhesan, organized a lecture under the RUSA initiative on Gender Sensitization Campaigning. The event featured Mr. Arvind Miyatra, Associate Professor from Bahuddin Arts College, Junagadh, as the guest speaker. The aim of the lecture was to raise awareness about gender issues and promote sensitization among students and faculty members.

Lecture Highlights: Mr. Arvind Miyatra commenced the lecture by defining gender sensitization and its relevance in contemporary society. He discussed the impact of gender stereotypes and biases on individuals and societal norms. Drawing from his research and experience, Mr. Miyatra emphasized the role of educational institutions in fostering a culture of gender equality through targeted campaigns and educational initiatives.

The lecture also focused on practical strategies for implementing gender sensitization programs within college campuses. Mr. Miyatra encouraged active participation from the audience, inviting questions and discussions on how to effectively address gender disparities and promote inclusivity.

Audience Response: The event saw enthusiastic participation from faculty members and a diverse group of students. Attendees engaged in meaningful discussions, sharing perspectives and insights on the challenges and opportunities in promoting gender sensitization within educational settings.

Vote of Thanks: Dr. Sanjay Bandhiya, a faculty member from the Hindi Department, Government Arts College, Bhesan, delivered the vote of thanks. He expressed gratitude to Mr. Arvind Miyatra for his enlightening lecture and valuable insights on gender sensitization. Dr. Bandhiya also thanked Dr. P. M. Sondarava for coordinating the event and ensuring its success.

Conclusion: In conclusion, Mr. Arvind Miyatra's lecture on Gender Sensitization Campaigning proved to be informative and impactful, contributing to a deeper understanding of gender issues among participants. The event underscored the college's commitment to promoting social awareness and inclusivity through initiatives under the RUSA framework.

6. Lecture on Gender Counselling

Date: 06/02/2021

Introduction: On February 6th, 2021, Government Arts College, Bhesan, organized a lecture under the RUSA initiative on Gender Counselling. The lecture featured Dr. Gunvantrai Vaja, Principal of Government Arts College, Kotda Sanganai, Rajkot, as the distinguished speaker. The objective of the lecture was to address issues related to gender and provide insights into effective counselling practices.

Lecture Highlights: Dr. Gunvantrai Vaja began the lecture by defining gender counselling and its significance in addressing gender-related challenges and issues. He emphasized the importance of empathy, understanding, and non-judgmental support in providing effective counselling to individuals dealing with gender identity, stereotypes, and discrimination.

The lecture also explored various aspects of gender dynamics within educational institutions and society at large. Dr. Vaja shared practical strategies and case studies to illustrate successful counselling approaches, encouraging a compassionate and inclusive environment for all.

Audience Response: The event witnessed active participation from faculty members and a diverse group of students. Attendees engaged enthusiastically in discussions, seeking clarification on counselling techniques and sharing personal perspectives on gender-related issues. The interactive session fostered a deeper understanding and appreciation of the complexities surrounding gender counselling.

Vote of Thanks: Dr. P. V. Guranani, a faculty member from the English Department, Government Arts College, Bhesan, extended the vote of thanks. He expressed gratitude to Dr. Gunvantrai Vaja for his enlightening lecture and invaluable insights on gender counselling. Dr. Guranani also acknowledged Dr. P. M. Sondarava for effectively coordinating the event and ensuring its success.

Conclusion: In conclusion, Dr. Gunvantrai Vaja's lecture on Gender Counselling proved to be informative and thought-provoking, providing participants with practical knowledge and skills to address gender-related issues sensitively. The event exemplified the college's commitment to promoting inclusivity and social awareness through initiatives under the RUSA framework.

10. Informative Talk on Women Empowerment

On 2nd February 2023, an insightful lecture on Women Empowerment was held at Government Arts College, Bhesan. The event featured Jignaba Rana as the keynote speaker, Assistant Professor for Government Arts College, Vallabhipur. Throughout the lecture, Rana eloquently addressed various critical aspects of women's empowerment in today's society. She passionately advocated for gender equality, stressing its importance in all spheres of life, including education, employment opportunities, and leadership roles. Rana underscored the transformative impact of education and skills development in enabling women to achieve economic independence and social empowerment.

Moreover, Rana challenged prevailing stereotypes and societal biases that hinder women's progress, urging the audience to actively promote inclusivity and equality in their communities. She emphasized the role of supportive legal frameworks and policies in safeguarding women's rights and fostering their empowerment.

In conclusion, the lecture by Jignaba Rana on Women Empowerment was both enlightening and inspiring. It not only raised awareness about the challenges women face but also highlighted the resilience and achievements of women who have overcome obstacles. The event served as a catalyst for continued dialogue and action towards building a more inclusive and equitable society.

Facilities for Women

1. Girls' Common Room

The Girls Common Room at our college is a dedicated space designed to cater to the needs of female students, providing a comfortable and supportive environment for their academic and personal endeavors. This facility serves as a hub where female students can unwind, socialize, and study in privacy. It is equipped with amenities such as comfortable seating, Wi-Fi connectivity and charging stations, ensuring that students can stay connected and productive throughout their time spent there. Additionally, the Girls Common Room fosters a sense of community among female students, offering a space where they can discuss ideas, share experiences, and support one another in their educational journey.

2. Complaint Box Female Students

At our college, we have established a complaint box dedicated to female students, overseen jointly by the Committee for Women's Development and Anti-Ragging Committee. This initiative aims to provide a confidential platform where female students can report instances of mental or physical harassment. Strategically located near the girls' common room, the complaint box ensures privacy, allowing students to express their concerns without fear. The WEC and Anti-Ragging Committee promptly investigate each complaint, ensuring swift and appropriate actions are taken to address and resolve issues. This initiative underscores our commitment to maintaining a safe and supportive campus environment, where every student feels empowered to speak up and contribute to a culture free from harassment and discrimination.

3. Ladies Washroom in Separate area of the college

In our college, the ladies' washroom is strategically located in a separate area, close to the girls' common room and away from male facilities. This design ensures convenience and privacy for female students, offering a comfortable and safe environment for their personal needs. The proximity to the girls' common room enhances accessibility and ease of use, contributing to a supportive atmosphere where female students can manage their hygiene and refreshment needs without any discomfort or inconvenience. This arrangement reflects our commitment to providing inclusive and thoughtful infrastructure that meets the specific requirements of our female student community.

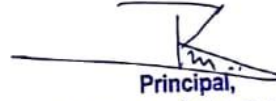

4. NSS unit only for Female Students

Date:11/07/2024

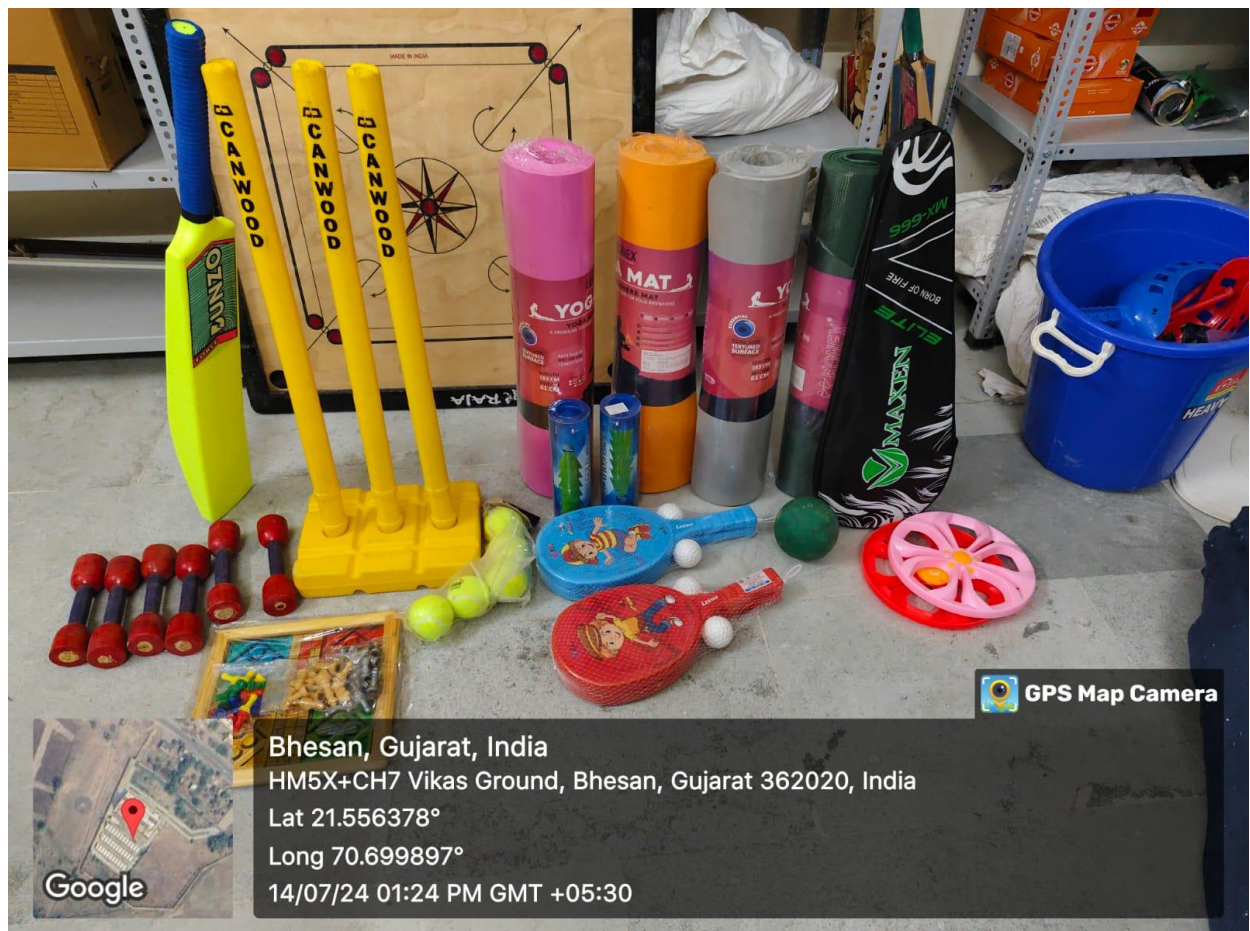

To Whomsoever it may Concern

This certifies that our college Government Arts College, Bhesan proudly hosts a dedicated National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit exclusively for Female Students only. There is no NSS unit for boys. This certificate is issued verifying the college record.

5. Sports Equipments for Female students

Government Arts College, Bhesan, ensures comprehensive support for female students' physical activities through a well-equipped sports facility. Specifically tailored for girls, the college offers a range of sports equipment to encourage their participation and development in various sports and recreational pursuits. The available equipment includes a cricket kit complete with bats, balls, pads, gloves, and helmets for cricket enthusiasts. Field sports such as shot put and discus throw are facilitated with shot put balls and discs, aiding strength and technique training. Dumbbells are provided in different weights for strength conditioning. Additionally, indoor activities are supported with board games like Ludo and Chess, promoting strategic thinking and leisure. For yoga enthusiasts, yoga mats are available to facilitate yoga and meditation sessions, promoting flexibility and mental well-being. Indoor sports such as table tennis and badminton are also catered to with comprehensive kits including racquets, shuttlecocks, and nets. Access to this equipment is facilitated through the college's sports department or designated coordinators, ensuring that girls have ample opportunities to engage in physical activities that promote health, skill development, and camaraderie. By investing in these resources, Government Arts College, Bhesan, underscores its commitment to fostering a supportive environment where female students can thrive both academically and physically.

6. Books and Magazine Shelf for female students

Located within the Girls' Common Room of Government Arts College, Bhesan, the Book and Magazine Shelf serves as a dedicated resource for the female student community. This initiative is designed to enrich the educational experience and personal development of young women by offering a curated selection of books and magazines. The shelf includes a diverse range of materials focusing on key topics such as women's health, hygiene, legal rights, and personal growth. This comprehensive collection aims to empower students with knowledge and information that are relevant to their academic pursuits and daily lives.

The content of the shelf is thoughtfully organized to cater to various interests and concerns of female students. It encompasses resources on women's health and hygiene, covering essential subjects like reproductive health, menstrual hygiene, nutrition, and mental well-being. These materials are intended to promote awareness and encourage proactive self-care among students. Additionally, the shelf features literature addressing legal and social issues pertinent to women, including discussions on gender equality, domestic violence awareness, and women's rights in society. By providing access to such resources, the college seeks to equip students with the necessary information to understand their legal rights and navigate societal challenges effectively.

Moreover, the Book and Magazine Shelf includes materials aimed at personal development and career planning. This aspect of the collection encourages students to explore their potential beyond academics, fostering leadership skills, confidence, and aspirations for future success. The strategic placement of the shelf within the Girls' Common Room ensures convenient access for all female students, creating a welcoming environment where they can browse through the collection at their leisure.

Since its inception, the shelf has already begun to make a positive impact on the student community. It has contributed to increased awareness among students on crucial women-centric issues and has facilitated ongoing learning beyond the classroom. By promoting regular use of these resources, the college supports holistic development among its female students, empowering them to make informed decisions and pursue their educational and personal goals with confidence.

In conclusion, the Book and Magazine Shelf at Government Arts College, Bhesan, exemplifies the institution's commitment to providing comprehensive support and resources tailored to the specific needs of its female student population. This initiative not only enhances academic learning but also promotes empowerment and self-sufficiency among young women. Moving forward, the college administration may consider periodic updates and enhancements to the collection, as well as initiatives to further promote awareness and utilization of the shelf, ensuring it continues to serve as a valuable asset for the educational journey and personal growth of its students.

Gender Audit Policy

Promoting gender equity among college students is essential for fostering an inclusive and supportive learning environment. Here are recommendations to promote gender equity in a college setting:

1. Student Engagement and Support:

• Student Organizations:

- Encourage the formation of student organizations that focus on gender equity and inclusivity. Provide resources and support for these groups to organize events, workshops, and discussions.

• Mentorship Programs:

- Establish mentorship programs that connect students with mentors who can provide guidance and support, fostering a sense of community and empowerment.

2. Training and Workshops:

• Gender Sensitivity Workshops:

- Implement mandatory gender sensitivity workshops for all students to raise awareness about stereotypes, biases, and the importance of creating an inclusive campus culture.

• Consent Education:

- Incorporate comprehensive education on consent and healthy relationships, addressing issues related to sexual harassment and assault.

3. Resource Centers:

• Gender Resource Centers:

- Establish a Gender Resource Center on campus to serve as a hub for information, support services, and resources related to gender equity. Ensure it is a safe space for all students.

4. Promote Diversity in Leadership:

• Leadership Opportunities

- Actively encourage and support students of all genders to take up leadership roles in student government, clubs, and other campus organizations.

• Representation in Decision-Making:

- Ensure diverse representation in decision-making bodies and committees within the college to include a variety of perspectives.

5. Campus Safety:

• Security Measures:

- Implement and publicize safety measures that address the specific concerns and needs of all genders on campus, creating an environment where everyone feels secure.

6. Regular Feedback Mechanisms:

• Student Feedback Surveys:

- Conduct regular surveys to gather feedback from students on their experiences related to gender equity. Use this feedback to continually improve campus policies and initiatives.

7. Partnerships and Collaborations:

• Community Engagement:

- Foster partnerships with external organizations and community groups that focus on gender equity to bring additional resources and perspectives to campus initiatives.

10. Celebrating Diversity:

• Inclusive Events:

- Plan and host events that celebrate diversity and inclusion, showcasing the achievements and contributions of students from all backgrounds.
